

Villains and Sweethearts: Summer Children's Concert set Monday, June 16 at Mount Vernon Music

Written by From Staff Reports
Wednesday, 11 June 2014 11:54

MOUNT VERNON –In a program of musical children's stories to kick off the Franklin County Library's summer reading program, Mount Vernon Music presents "Villains and Sweethearts," performed by the Orchard Ensemble and narrated by Sherry Daniel.

Children of all ages will love how poetry, music and illustrations give a new slant on old tales, as the roaring giant from "Jack and the Beanstalk," the Prince climbing to meet Rapunzel, and one very hungry wolf from "Little Red Riding Hood" finally get to tell their side of the story.

The concert in Mount Vernon Music Hall, located at 402 Leftwich St. at Yates, on Monday, June 16 at 2 p.m. will open with performances by winners of Mount Vernon Music's Betty Whitlock Scholarship awards.

Admission is free. Memberships in MVM start at $25 and are good for the entire season from June 1 through May 31. For more information, call Mount Vernon Music at 903-563-3780 or visit www.mountvernonmusic.org.

Mount Vernon Music is a 501(c)(3) organization formed in 2006 to further the performance of classical and other fine music in rural East Texas. For more information on the mission and concert schedule of Mount Vernon Music, and about historic Mount Vernon Music Hall, please visit www.mountvernonmusic.org.