

Just 'bout time...Sex and the City 2

Written by By CINDY ROLLER, News-Telegram Sports Writer
Tuesday, 25 May 2010 14:21

We can already hear the theme music playing! Yes, folks the days continue to countdown. Sex and the City 2 will be rolling across the big screen this Thursday, and the News-Telegram staffers are all set to go.

Mrs. Arts Editor and all that SC aficionado Terry Mathews, Nose for News and Lookin for Some Fab 4 fun News Editor Faith Huffman, Big City Photog in the Small Town Luis Noble, our resident go to SC guy, and myself, a fan for years from their days on HBO, sports writer Cindy Roller will be at the door at 6:45 on Thursday with tickets in hand.

Terry has been beefing up on all the latest entertainment shows in preparation. Faith has been scanning the movie guides, eagerly awaiting the release. Luis - well, he's always looking for another lady for his arm.

And as for me, let's just say a night on the town with this gal and her $85 strappy sandals always results in a good time.

Keep a close eye to our upcoming reviews and blogs. We WILL make it worth it. And this won't be any mirage!!!