

Debbie Young called in to report she is still having computer issues and thus is still unable to prepare her weekly news column. But, if all goes according to plan she will have her system back up and running by next week in time to prepare Brashear News for the Aug. 21 edition of the News-Telegram.