

News in the community is still minimal this week.

I'm not sure how the Miller Grove FFA Chapter's animals faired while at the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo but I do know that Pauline Rubarts came home with a blue ribbon for her shop project that was taken for the ag mechanics portion of the show.

Saturday will be the cemetery committee's final meeting before the Memorial Day services on May 3. We have a good line-up planned for the program. I hope everyone with a connection to the cemetery will be able to attend.

Happy birthday this week to Pamela Potts and Sheena (Petty) McCraw on March 23; Clinton Lennon on March 24; Jackie Burns, Kim (Miller) Fox, Kay (Miller) Blanton and Koby Sharp on March 26; Colton Tipps on March 27; and Franklin Johnson and Colten Baylus on March 29.

Last week, I was in a rush writing my news column and I knew I was leaving someone off my birthday list, so this week I would like to wish a very happy belated birthday to my good friend Linell (Barrett) Woods, whose birthday was March 16.

As you travel the highways and byways don't forget that all roads lead back home and back to Miller Grove. Please send me any newsworthy information. My email address is brd\_2@hotmail.com.
