

Thank goodness spring is here (for now anyway)! I have been tired of winter and am ready to see the trees green up again and gardens start growing.

My sympathies go out to the Lacey family. Just a few months ago, Mr. Lacey passed away and was buried in Miller Grove Cemetery. This past week was the burial of Mrs. Lorraine Lacey. She was born May 13, 1932, in Bridgeport, Conn., the daughter of Charles and Florence (Schneby) Nugent. She married the Rev. Cullen Prentice Lacey in Zevalla. Mrs. Lacey passed away in Gainesville, Ga., on March 19 and was laid to rest in Miller Grove Cemetery March 26. She is survived by several children and grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband and son, Allen Wayne Lacey.

My little nephew, Owen, is growing each time I see him. My brother and his family were over at our house one afternoon and I was able to hold him for a little while.

Happy birthday this week to Kendra (Dannheim) Fisher on March 30, B.J. Wright and David Tipps on March 31, Shaye-Lynn Emerick and Jean Benton on April 2, Canyon Smith on April 3 and John Cummings on April 5.

As you travel the highways and byways, don't forget that all roads lead back home and back to Miller Grove. Please send me any newsworthy information. My email address is brd_2@hotmail.com.
