

The Tira City Council met on Tuesday night at the community center and discussed routine business. Malcolm Joslin mentioned that the Tira Volunteer Fire Department has tentatively scheduled a chili fundraiser for Saturday, April 12. The group also discussed the ice storm from last week and the fact that there were still some ice patches on Saturday. They were thankful that the plumbing at the community center held up without any problems. (I was later informed that there was still some ice on the ground on Monday, over a week after the storm hit our community.)

Tiffany and Morgan Joslin were at Fair Park in Dallas on Saturday for a the musical, "We Will Rock You," by Queen and Ben Elton, and then they met Linda Ellen Vaughn for dinner at Culver's in Rockwall. They reported having a great time and a delicious meal.

Landon and Laiken Joslin and their friends, Tres and Jessica Wright, went to Rockwall on Saturday night and enjoyed a wonderful meal at Kyoto's. Chip and I had the privilege of keeping Rylan and Brailon, while they were gone.

Yvonne Weir, Brenda Allen and I met for lunch at San Remo on Tuesday for a late celebration of Brenda's birthday.

I hope to have more news next week about spring break activities.

I always need and appreciate input from my friends to help keep me informed of news in our community. If you have any news pertaining to Tira residents, past or present, please contact me, Jan Vaughn, at 903-945-2190 or 903-438-6688 or janvaughn73@gmail.com.
