

There's something good here . . .

Written by By TERRY MATHEWS, News-Telegram Arts Editor
Friday, 26 August 2011 11:21

There's something good here . . .

We got this email from a reader who wanted to thank the people who took time to help her out of a dangerous situation recently:

On Thursday August 4, at approximately 4 p.m. I was choking in front of Lowes at the stop sign, due to an obstructed airway from taking medication.

I could not say a word but I just grabbed my throat and coughed as much as I possibly could with no air. I could not breath. I could only look up toward heaven and utter with my lips, "Jesus, help me please." There were many cars swerving by me and honking their horns but God sent me two angels to help me.

I want to thank God first and I want to thank my two angels; Jo Marie Neal and and an off-duty police officer named Officer [Seth] McDaniel. I am so grateful for people like them.

Sincerely, Sonia Clayton

There's something good here . . .

Reminder: The ladies of the Lone Star Heritage Quilt Guild have worked all year to ensure that their 12th Annual Quilt Show is the best one yet.

They have 122 entries in categories ranging from bed quilts to wearable art.

They're also raffling off a quilt called "A Nation Divided – 34 States Civil War," adapted from a pattern by Susan McDermott (QUILT Magazine, March 2008) and quilted by guild member Doris Robers.

There's something good here . . .

Written by By TERRY MATHEWS, News-Telegram Arts Editor
Friday, 26 August 2011 11:21

Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5 and can be purchased from any guild member.

The show will be from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 16, and from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 17, in the Sulphur Springs High School Gym. Admission is $3 for adults, children under 12 get in free.