Sometimes Santa needs a little help. Can you identify this merry elf?

I really do love this part of my job ... the part where I get to tell stories about people who give of themselves to do good for others.

Make sure to check out the Neighbors page in this weekend's edition of your News-Telegram.

We're featuring a story about a special father/grandfather/great-grandfather who spent most of this year locked up in his woodworking shop making presents for his large family.
