

PJC Commencement Set

Written by Courtesy of PJC
Wednesday, 29 April 2009 09:51

More than 500 candidates have applied for graduation on Friday of next week at Paris Junior College.

That means the college is expecting a record-breaking graduation ceremony, according to Rita Tapp, Registrar.

Commencement exercises begin at 8 p.m. in Noyes Stadium on the PJC campus.

In case of severe weather, ceremonies will move to the Hunt Physical Education Center, And an announcement will be made on radio stations in the area by noon on that Friday, May 8. Notice will also be posted on the PJC website at www.parisjc.edu .

During the ceremonies a graduate will be awarded the Distinguished Service Award. The 2009 Master Teacher will also be recognized.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies, a reception for all graduates, their family and friends will be held on the tennis courts adjacent to Noyes Stadium.

For further information, call 903-782-0212.