

Macek wins Iron Eagle Award

Written by Don Wallace
Tuesday, 15 April 2014 10:01

---

Iron Eagle Award winner

Blake Macek of Sulphur Springs, now the punter for the University of North Texas recently was given the Iron Eagle Award at Denton prior to Saturday's spring football game. This award is based on the amount of points earned based on the top player's (the entire football team) performance -leadership, work out intensity, goals/performance and mental fortitude - during spring workouts. This is the first time a specialist/punter has won this award.