

North Hopkins players honored

Written by Don Wallace

Wednesday, 28 May 2014 11:12

BIRTHRIGHT — District champion North Hopkins had several players honored on the all-district baseball list.

Superlatives — Kevin Meza, Blake Adams, co-MVP; Jessie Williams, Offensive Player of the Year; Silas Whaley, Pitcher of the Year.

First team selections included Austin Oldham, infield; Alfredo Orozco, utility player and Rheston Sills, outfield. Second team, Clay Bearden, catcher; Javier Rojo, designated hitter. Honorable mention - Allan Morehead, outfield.

The Panthers, state ranked during the season, were 14-0 in district, finishing the year 16-7 overall under head coach Timothy Henderson. The team lost to Harleton in area playoffs.