

Pledging Allegiance to the Flags

Written by Staff Photos by Faith Huffman
Tuesday, 25 March 2014 12:10

Douglas Intermediate School fifth graders Cameron Beard and Maci Swafford lead trustees in the pledge to the Texas flag during Monday night's regular school board meeting. Beard, the son of Charles and Angela Beard, said that his year at Douglas has been great. Swafford, daughter of Steve and Roxanne Swafford, said Douglas has "great teachers."

Sulphur Springs High School junior Drew McCullough, son of John and Christie McCullough, leads trustees in the pledge of allegiance to the American flag during Monday night's school board meeting. McCullough, when asked about his experiences and impressions of school this year, noted "junior year is hard." Also pictured are Sulphur Springs Independent School District Board of Trustees Vice President Don Sapaugh, member Leesa Toliver, President Kerry Wright and SSISD Superintendent Michael Lamb.