Sulphur Springs Mayor and local historian John Sellers (middle, in red shirt) tells the history of Sulphur Springs during the seventh annual History by Foot tour Saturday morning. The event, sponsored by Sulphur Springs Downtown Business Alliance, featured information about the pivotal people who shaped Sulphur Springs, historic events and notable landmarks, including the newly renovated city hall. There were two tours today, one beginning at 9 a.m. with 17 walkers and a second tour that began at 10:45 a.m. with 20 walkers.
