

Getting a Head Start

Written by Administrator
Thursday, 17 April 2014 12:05

Early Childhood Learning Center on Thursday hosted a Sulphur Spring Independent School District's Head Start meeting for parents which focused on transitions. Head Start classes began the event with several songs, followed by EEL Consulting Services Becky Justice (not pictured) speaking to parents about the importance of understanding a child's transition from being solely at home to a new school environment. Staff Photo by Jon Lance