

Sulphur Springs High School New Court

Written by Administrator
Tuesday, 06 May 2014 11:50

Patience is a virtue – and a necessity in this case. Sulphur Springs High School Basketball Coach Jeremy Josey (left), Head Baseball Coach Jerrod Hammack (middle) and Assistant Principal Steve Carter discuss the importance of letting the new wood for the basketball court sit for several days in order to acclimate to the humidity and temperature of the gym.

Staff Photo by Jon Lance