

Cashing In

Written by Administrator
Tuesday, 03 June 2014 11:51

Fifth graders Langston Bridges and Ernesto Martinez play the board game, “Guess Who” at Douglas Intermediate School’s Cat Cash Day on Tuesday morning. Cat Cash Day allows students who display excellent behavior to earn points they can spend at the end of a semester. This year’s students could choose between going to Classic Lanes, the school library, First Baptist Church Recreational Outreach Center, Starplex Cinema or Texas A&M University-Commerce recreational center. Staff Photo Jon Lance