

Good People Having Good Fun

Written by From Staff Reports
Friday, 06 March 2009 16:44

'Bumble'-free zone

Farmers Electric Cooperative team won "Most Spirited Supporters" at the 4th Annual Rotary Club Spelling Bee in the Sulphur Springs High School cafeteria Thursday evening.

Big speller

Timothy White wows the crowd spelling words most adults find difficult during the 4th Annual Rotary Club Spelling Bee held in the Sulphur Springs High School cafeteria Thursday evening. White, 8-year-old son of Richie and Lonette White and a 6th grader in the home-school cooperative Christian Home Educators of Sulphur Springs (C.H.E.S.S.), won the Hopkins County Spelling Bee recently.

We 'bee' celebrating

Tammy Feagley celebrates after her team, "The Money Bees," sponsored by Alliance Bank, won the 4th Annual Rotary Club Spelling Bee held at the Sulphur Springs High School cafeteria Thursday evening.