

Lisa Ann Kneifl Baumann

A Mass of the Resurrection for Lisa Ann Kneifl Baumann will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 1, at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Azle.

A recitation of the Holy Rosary will commence at 4 p.m. Monday, March 31, with visitation following at Biggers Funeral Home in Lake Worth.

Lisa Ann Kneifl Baumann died Thursday, March 27, 2014, with her family by her side, after a ten year battle with breast cancer.

She was born May 27, 1971.

She married Mark D. Baumann on August 21, 1992. He survives.

She attended elementary school in Coleridge, Neb., and graduated high school at North Hopkins in 1989.

She attended Texas Women's University where she earned a bachelors and masters degree in nutrition.

She was employed as a dietician by Mother Francis Hospital in Tyler, for Fresenius Dialysis in Minden, La., for Weatherford Regional Medical Center and Texas Health Harris Methodist in Azle.

Through her battle with cancer, she tried to maintain a normal life for her three girls as best she could. She loved butterfly and bird watching, especially bluebirds and hummingbirds. She volunteered at the local schools while kids were in session and she was a pianist at Holy Trinity during religious education and services.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Marietta Tramp Kneifl; by her grandparents, Pete and Elizabeth Kneifl, and Louis and Mary Tramp; and by uncles Leonard Kneifl and John Tramp.

Other survivors include daughters, Jordan, Emily and Rachel; father, Joseph P. Kneifl of Sulphur Springs; siblings, Sheila Kleinpeter of Plano, Kristy Roberts of Willow Park, Philip Kneifl of Emory, Russell Kneifl of White Oak, Ronda Halse of Benbrook and Linda Thomas of Denton.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
